EOT followers asked questions using Instagram's poll feature regarding event cancellations, COVID's impact on academics, athletic competitions, etc.

Videos were also published to EOT's Facebook page. Answers were later transcribed and published on our website and to a Twitter thread.

Q&A sessions spanned a month, until Roseville High officially closed for the rest of the year.

The @RJUHSD board will approve one of the following grading models for the rest of the spring term tonight at 6:00 p.m.

| Components | Model 1 - Letter Grades | Model 2 - Credit/ No Credit | Model 3 - Hold Harmless Same grade as Term 1 or higher for Term 2 |
|--|--|---|---|
| Term 1 (Jan - March) | A-F with different scales for courses and teachers | A-F with different scales for courses and teachers | A-F with different scales for courses and teachers |
| Term 2 (Mar - May) | 4 (A) = 100% to 90% 3 (B) = 85% to 70% 2 (C) = 60% to 50% 1 (NM) = 40% (No Mark) | Credit = minimally proficient; proficient; distinguished (e.g., A-C) No Credit = not proficient (e.g. F) No Mark = "No grades could be made up throughout the first semester; 20-21 school year will be undifferentiated recovery." | Some grading scale as term 1, but students' grades can only stay the same or increase. (How to grade new work?) "No Mark" is still an option. |
| Impact on GPA Check w/ Keith and Alesia for Alesia: Indica email from them: Giving a student an NM will not affect the student's GPA in Alesia, but it will translate to an F in CALPADS. Other possible non-standard | A-C grades will impact GPA, depending upon which courses students receive letter grades vs "No Mark." No GPA Calculations for | No data from Term 2 will be used to calculate GPA, credit only for all marks, no impact on GPA. | Yes will impact as it does normally with GPA calculations. |

BREAKING: The RJUHS board of trustees have approved to move graduation to the Placer Valley Event Center @ The Grounds. This will apply to the district's five comprehensive sites - Antelope, Granite Bay, Oakmont, Roseville and Woodcreek.

UPDATE:
Here are some important facts from tonight's decision:
Graduations will be held on both Thursday and Friday (two on one day, three the following).
Graduates will receive four tickets (two more than previously) with additional seats higher up in bleachers.
The Grounds will be rented and paid for by the district. The funds each school previously spent on stages, chairs, security and audio equipment (around $15,000 per site) will be sent back to the student budget.
Parking at The Grounds will be free.
A survey was sent out on August 14th to students, staff and parents. Below is a summary of the survey results:
