

REMARKER

ST. MARK'S SCHOOL OF TEXAS • DALLAS, TEXAS • VOLUME 66, NUMBER 3 • DECEMBER 13, 2019

LIFE'S CHALLENGES

AN UNBREAKABLE bond

Senior Carr Urschel started appreciating the little things more – family, friends and fortunate opportunities – after the death of his brother, Chance. See story, pages 6, 7

STILL TOGETHER
Even after his brother Chance's passing, Carr Urschel (right) still remembers Chance's life every day.

STORY Ishan Gupta, Aaron Thorne, Sid Vattamreddy, Christopher Wang PHOTO Charlie Rose

DON'T MISS

Financial freedom

• With rising tuition costs on campus and in college, students weigh the costs of "elite" colleges and private education. Pages 16,17

Grandparents' day

• Before students left for Thanksgiving break, Marksmen brought grandparents and relatives to campus Nov. 22. Page 18

Christmas fever

• Chair of the decoration committee, senior Eddie Raj explains his fascination with Christmas as the season quickly approaches. Page 32

