

Gifts Galore

As the holiday season approaches, the Messenger found gifting ideas for friends and family.

anika TALYAN

Illustrations by Emmie Foley
Photographs by Anika Talyan

1 Snow globe $10

Musical and holiday-themed, these glittery snow globes from Target are available in many different designs. Simply give them a shake and they're ready to be shown off.

2 Wreck this Journal: $10

The 224 pages of this book from Walmart are packed with colors and creative ways to destroy the pages. Challenges on each page encourage "wrecking" the journal.

3 Succulent: $5-$10

This hand-sized succulent from Target is a perfect plant for someone who wants a low-commitment plant that is easy to manage, affordable and appealing. It is recommended to water at least once a week during their growing phase. Although all succulents come in various shapes and sizes, this succulent comes in a small yet lovable size.

4 Mug: $10

Available in multiple sizes and colors from Target, these witty mugs display some quirky phrases including "Insert eye roll here" and "I'm not feeling very worky today." These mugs are a must have for a cold tea, hot coffee and everything in between.

5 Versed Skincare: $15-$20

Found in a variety of stores including Target, Versed has a wide array of products that hydrate the user's skin and make it glow. As many people are getting more and more interested in skincare products, these products provide the necessary baseline, making them perfect for anyone getting into skincare.