

ELON NEWS NETWORK

Elon, North Carolina - Sunday April 10, 2022

Good afternoon ENN readers,

Our newsroom was busy this week as Elon students head closer to the last day of classes and graduation. We covered the proposed budget from the Board of Aldermen, Elon's 10th Lavender Graduation, the upcoming "Elon Elite" benefit concert, women's tennis advancing to the CAA championship and more.

Top stories of the week

News

Elon University students host benefit concert in honor of Ukraine

"Elon Elite" is the name of this year's concert and talent show that will raise donations for a Ukrainian support organization

Elon University's 10th Lavender Graduation celebrates LGBTQIA graduates, history

The annual event had the largest cohort in its tenure at this year's celebration

Lifestyle

Local textile mill celebrates 140th anniversary

Textile Heritage Museum commemorates Alamance County history

Politics

Town of Elon Board of Aldermen proposed budget for 2022-23 year with increased water and solid waste fees

Town Manager Rich Roedner proposed the 2022-23 budget, there are no plans to increase Elon's taxes, but residents' water and solid waste fees will increase

Sports

Former Elon University quarterback Davis Cheek signed by Carolina Panthers

Panthers sign Cheek as undrafted free agent where he will compete for a roster spot this summer

Opinions

ELON EATS: Petro's Chili & Chips has everything you want and more

Elon Eats is a column that reviews restaurants and food vendors in the local area

Elon Local News

Elon Local News | Full Broadcast | April 25, 2022

ELN Morning | Full Broadcast | April 28, 2022

At Elon University:

- Elon University to lose $269,000 after venue declares bankruptcy
- A look at Elon University's 2022 Lumen Scholars

Sports Section:

- Elon University women's tennis rallies to upset Charleston, advance to CAA championship match
- Elon University softball team defeats UNC Wilmington, clinches CAA Tournament berth

Follow Elon News Network to stay up-to-date on local news.

If you want to unsubscribe, click here.