

Social Media Reporting

@tesseraeybk

The Tesseract Yearbook Staff uses their instagram account, @tesseractybk, to connect with the student body throughout the year.

Since our publication is only released at the end of each school year, our instagram gives us the opportunity to connect with our student body and share quality reporting throughout the year. Editors posted consistently throughout the year sharing topics including results of championship games, pep rally photos, NCAA signings, drama club shows and more.

Sports Reporting

 tesseraeybk

 Liked by kestef1722 and 74 others

tesseraeybk On Jan. 4, the varsity boys swimming and diving team competes against Vestal during their home meet. The Hawks won with a close score of 93-92. Reporting by Maddie Palm and Maxine Lu

January 5

 tesseraeybk

 Liked by almydylan and 190 others tesseraeybk Congratulations to the girls varsity soccer team - your STAC Conference Champions!! They defeated Chenango Valley at home tonight, 1-0. On to Sectionals!

 tesseraeybk

 Liked by almydylan and 88 others

tesseraeybk On December 13, Varsity Boys and Girls Bowling took on Johnson City at Crystal Lanes in Corning. Both the boys and girls defeated Johnson City, helped by senior Meghan Sturdevant's dominant day. Her highest score of 247 points was the result of her third game, leading to a total score of 735 for the day. Reporting by Carolyn Heckle

View 1 comment

December 15, 2021

Sports Reporting

Liked by kestef1722 and 117 others

tesseraeybk Monday, Aug. 23, student athletes and coaches held their opening day for fall sports. "It's great that we got to start on time this year. There's a lot more people here this year than last season and a lot of new freshman so we're excited," sophomore swimmer Kara Peters said. Along with students, coaches are able to get back to normal practices with their teams. "It's hard starting over again, but I think everyone is really excited to be back into play," Varsity Volleyball Coach Barb Smith said.

Reporting by Adah Gray and Kaitlin Chung

Liked by kestef1722 and 80 others

tesseraeybk Owing the court, the girls JV basketball team takes on Prattsburgh on Tuesday, December 21. The Hawks won the game with a final score of 57-24. "All together [the game] went well for our team and was a good win after a few hard losses," freshman Rukma Chaudhury said.

Reporting by Leila Ianovici

December 23, 2021

 tesseraeybk

Liked by almydylan and 190 others

tesseraeybk The unified basketball team celebrated their seniors and special educators on Thursday May 19 in the fieldhouse during their final game of the season against Maine Endwell. The game ended with a close score of 43-46. During the game, coach Julie Pierce honored seniors Gillian Mason, Justin Vanderpool, and Austin Terry with a speech. Every special educator in the district was also honored with a free Hawks Unified T-shirt.

Reporting by Sofia Sterbank

May 23

Academics

tesseraeybk

Liked by almydylan and 121 others

tesseraeybk Opening the year with their first concert performance since the pandemic, the CPP bands performed in their annual combined Holiday Concert, which took place on Thurs. Dec. 16 "I think it went very well, it was one of my best performances we've done all year. There was a bit of nervousness with the red lights, but we settled down once we got into the rhythm of the song. I'm very glad with how it turned out." sophomore Jacob Chung said.

Reporting by Merica Griffin and Hannah Masaki

tesseraeybk

Liked by almydylan and 98 others

tesseraeybk On the stage on December 15th, students perform various songs at the winter chorus concert. "My favorite part was the last song, I was singing with the choristers and it was really fun and exciting," freshmen Morgan Dahlman said.

Reporting by Hannah Masaki and Jessie Fang

tesseraeybk

Liked by almydylan and 68 others

tesseraeybk #flashbackfriday On February 9th students participating in concert band, and symphonic ensemble performed throughout the auditorium. The 2022 prism concert posed an opportunity for students in band to perform solos, small groups, and ensemble pieces to their family and friends. "I'm really glad that I did it because it allowed me to work with my lesson partner Sofia. We practiced a lot together which I felt really helped develop my skills further," sophomore Adelaide Barlow said.

Reporting by Genni Griffin

March 4

Events

tesseraeybk

Liked by almydylan and 155 others

The Broadway Showcase opened last night in the theater, and runs through Sunday afternoon - Friday and Saturday at 7pm, Sunday at 2pm. Admission is $5 and a canned good. Congratulations and break a leg to the cast and crew - have a great show!

Reporting and photos by Leah Rizkallah

tesseraeybk

Liked by kestef1722 and 104 others

Surrounded by his coaches and teammates, senior Grayson Saltzer signed his letter of intent to play Division II baseball at Molloy College. "I'm excited to meet new people, meet a new coach, meet a new team and just play at another level," Saltzer said.

Reporting by Amelia Manning and Graham Simons

December 13, 2021

tesseraeybk

Liked by sarahjohuff2014 and 158 others

Since the conclusion of the CPP Drama Club's performance of Disney's "Newsies", many students involved left a lasting impact after the show was finished. "The acting and singing was amazing. The show was so much better than an average high school performance" Olivia Monichetti, 10 "Even though I've never had full conversations with some of the cast, I would definitely say that us as a club, we're like a family. We're always there for each other and rehearsals and everything was so just fun and everyone's gonna miss each other, because we just spend so much time together and we have such a good relationship," freshman Erika Giaconia said.

Reporting by Autumn Knapp

April 6

tesseraeybk

Liked by almydylan and 264 others

Yesterday afternoon, students displayed their school spirit at the pep rally. The senior class won with two spirit sticks, while the rest of the classes came away with one each.

Reporting by Maddie Palm and Samantha Miraglia