CHEERING ON their friends, seniors Taylor Fiorenzi, Maitlynn Mitchell, Jenna White, Maddie Hinckley, Belle Burdine, Payton Adams and Emma G. Davis make some noise at the pep rally on Sept.
10. "At first, I think a lot of us were kind of skeptical of the idea that the pep rallies would be outside," Hinckley said. "I know the seniors especially are just grateful that we got to have them at all." Seniors still lined the front row at

HEY!

You heard the CHANTS that echoed at Friday night football games.

"GET LOUD, OR GO SIT WITH YOUR MOM."

Have you ever listened to a better student section?

You heard the SHOUTS from the competitive ping pong matches in the cafeteria.

"I OWN THE TABLE."

So much for a quiet place to study.

You heard the songs BLARE at the first outdoor homecoming dance.

"MR. DJ, PLAY PITBULL!"

We've been there, done that.

DID YOU CATCH ALL THAT? GOOD. WHAT ABOUT...

MA TEN

LOUD AND clear, sophomore Gavin Haddox plays the quad at the first outdoor pep rally of the year on Sept. 27. "I'm on the fence about pep rallies being outside," Haddox said. "I enjoy being inside because everything's louder so everyone gets really hype, but I understand why being outside keeps us safe. It's just a little less fun." Photo by Elise Creed

HANDS IN THE AIR, seniors Belle Burdine, Maddie Hinckley and junior Emma Brandenburg play Rosie, Donna and Tanya in "Mamma Mia!" "In our dress rehearsal week for 'Mamma Mia,' our lead became terribly sick. I proceeded to go on that night and though it wasn't my best performance, I knew I was going to come back the next day head held high and guns blazing," Brandenburg said. "That night I spent 14 hours running every single bit of dialogue, every song, every mannerism and every bit of choreography. I show up the next day exhausted and mentally drained, but ready to go on nonetheless." Photo by Trinity Hindman Baristas BREWED drinks and steamed milk, scrambling to prepare for the opening of Grounded Coffee.

"ORDER UP!"

The lunchroom passed the vibe check.

Mrs. Bowden ASKED students to hold up their badges in response to the new safety protocol.

"ID CHECK!"

Those things came in clutch when buying a quick snack.

Cameras and keyboards CLICKED as senior Nathan Dominguez pieced together another episode of Bearcat TV.

"HAVE A GREAT BEARCAT DAY."

Tuning in made weekly advisory a little more tolerable.

The rookie wrestling team UNFURLED their mats at 6 a.m. practices. Among them,

"DANIEL THE DOM" & "CAP'N COLE."

These boys are coming for The Rock's brand.

People APPROACHED senior Brendan Rivers in Brookshire's to say how much they loved "Mamma Mia!"

"HERE WE GO AGAIN."

Couldn't get "Waterloo" out of our heads.

Then Coach Buc TOLD the South Oak Cliff coach to

"GO AND WIN IT ALL."

And they did.

Whether you heard it or not, People listen to us.

> STAY LOUD. TUNE IN. We aren't asking. We're telling you.

LISTEN UP.

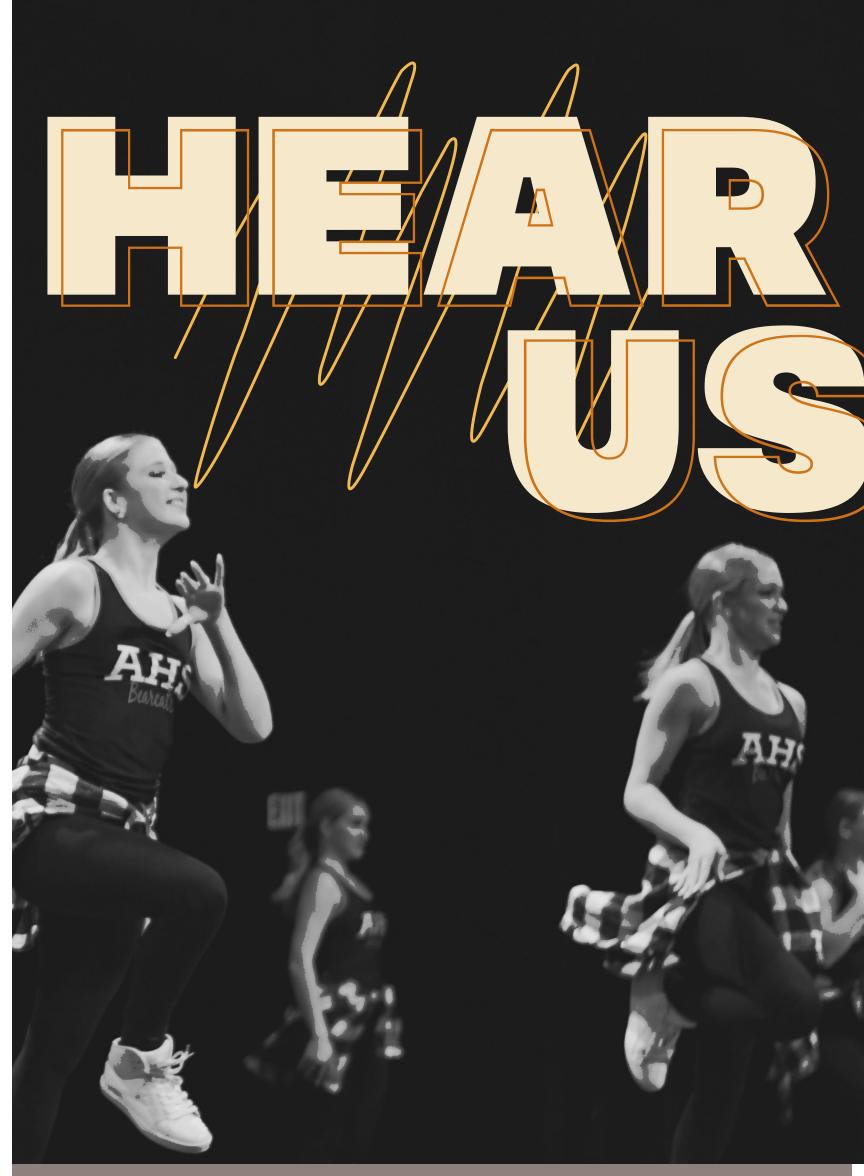

HOLDING HIS hands out, senior Raymond Polexi yells in surprise as chemistry teacher Mrs. Nichols lights soap bubbles on fire, causing a chemical reaction on Jan. 12. "The fire thing was so cool. I've always heard stories about it and I've always wanted to try it," Polexi said. "It was cool to see the bubbles from the gas faucet form inside the beaker. Also the fire was way bigger than I thought it would be." Photo

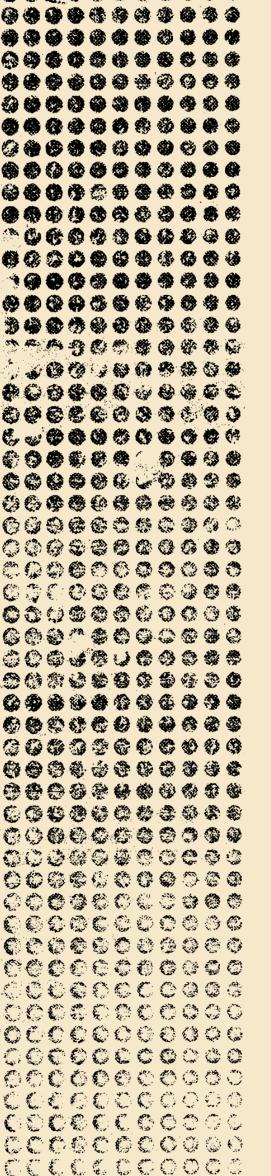

TAKING CENTER stage, seniors Anna Yates, Morgan Smith and Emma Marchlinski look into the crowd at the Nov. 13 dance recital. "Dance is easily one of the only ways I can push my body to its true potential," Smith said. "I feel beautiful, I feel healthy, and I feel free." Photo by Ava Bathurst

SMILE ON his face, sophomore Cane Cooley pies Coach McCone in the face Jan 18. "I chose to pie McCone because I loved to get back at him for making us run all the time," Cooley said. "His reaction was, and I quote, 'Good job for not getting it in my hair.'" The pie in the face was a sophomore class representative fund raiser for their graduating class in which students entered a raffle to pie a teacher of their choice. Photo by Kaley Schabel

Here, sound means spirit.

Don't keep quiet or stay silent,

Get louder.

Keep making some noise. Keep raising your voice.

And thanks for listening.
