POLITICS & WORLDVIEW

956 students responded to a campus-wide survey, garnering an 80 percent response rate. Though 98 percent of respondents said that they support “the advocacy of women’s rights on the ground of the equality of the sexes,” only, 70.4 percent of people said they consider themselves feminists. 77.8 percent of students think that people should always have the right to have an abortion, while 97.7 percent of people supported abortion in at least some circumstances. In addition, 31.6 percent of students believe that white people can experience reverse racism.
