

BEHIND THE CURTAIN

What was your job on the tech crew?

SOUND MANAGER

"I was on the tech crew, but I also helped with the script for a little bit. I worked the soundboard and controlled the lights. I learned a lot from the experience. It was a tough job to get a grip on, but I learned pretty quickly. Even as a tech manager, I loved being friends with everybody in the play."
- Camille Sparks (7)

MAKEUP ARTIST

"I helped the school play by organizing set props and doing makeup. I loved getting to see what came out of all of my hard work. We actually got all the props from this attic, and I helped get all the stuff down. I think I did really well helping with the school play. I'm proud that even though I didn't perform, I was still a major part of the show."
- Claire Conwell (8)

CAUGHT ON Camera

The school production of "Spy TV," was on Mar. 3 and 4. The play told the fictional story of students trying to get cameras out of their school. In the role of "Allen," Teddy Epstein (8) rehearses Shakespeare to try to fool the cameras on Jan. 13. With two full months of rehearsal left, Epstein practiced his scene from the school production of "Spy TV," where he performed a skit from Romeo and Juliet.

Photo by H. MCDONNELL. Spread content by O. BLAIR. Design by A. WIENECKEN

"This scene was a diversion for the Spy TV cameras," Epstein said. "I thought it was super cool that I got to pretend to be Juliet and act like juice was poisoning me."
TEDDY EPSTEIN (8)

PLAY THE PART

What was your role in "Spy TV?"

WILLOW

"In the play, my character was Willow, and she was definitely the most energetic person in the play. I like that she's weird and a bit of a nerd sometimes. Sometimes it was hard to play Willow, because she is always in a good mood, and it's hard to act like that."
- Ava Davis (8)

KENZIE

Brooke Bogner (7) and Daphne Burge (7)

"I played Kenzie, who was the outspoken leader of the punk rock emo kid band. I got to yell at everybody for no reason, which makes everything ten times more fun. I don't think that I am like this character at all, but some people say I am. Kenzie is not afraid to speak up and say what she thinks."
- Daphne Burge (7)

BROOKE

"Brooke was my character in the play, and she was very stunk up. Most of the time Brooke was a little too confident and thought she was the best out of everybody. I thought it was crazy that I got this character, because I'm absolutely nothing like her. My favorite part of playing Brooke was when she started to be positive and more kind."
- Chaya Eickler (7)

JAKE

"I played Jake, the football jock in the play, and I loved being the guy who had power over the other students. He is very tough and confident, and if I had to describe him in one word, it would be cocky. He likes to brag about everything he does, even though his actions aren't that cool."
- Ethan Collins (8)