

Leap of Faith

Nicholas Huang | Poetry | 8

take a step
a jump across the void over an impossible gap with an infinite bound

hurdle over the barrier then clear the highest bar aim for the moon and you'll touch the stars

hippity hop
hippity hop
when will it stop

take a leap of faith in the right direction for the world is waiting one choice

makes all the difference
