

POWDER GOT PUFFED

SENIORS AND JUNIORS MATCH UP IN ANNUAL RIVALRY GAME

The annual juniors versus seniors powderpuff game took place at Liberty for the first time after previously being held at Heartland Park. The seniors won in a close game, 48-46.

Madison Barnes (12) & Nevaeh Giffin (11)

McKelvie Stepney's (12) most memorable moment in the game was being able to pull a flag as a defender. Stepney enjoyed being aggressive and showed this by reaching out for Payton Hemmer's (11) flag during a play.

"I think HOCO really is a time where everyone wants to participate and it's amazing," Reidy said. PHOTO BY S. DAVIS

GETTIN' GROOVY

SENIOR STUCO MEMBERS CREATE A MEMORABLE PEP ASSEMBLY

SIBLING BATTLE

"It was a awesome experience that I would 100% do again, as long as I keep winning. It felt great to win, especially when the whole school was watching."
-Dylan Handlan (11)

LIP SYNC BATTLE

"I wanted to be a human disco ball. The outfit was as close as I could come. I think the students were the real winners, getting to watch five supremely talented teachers lip sync? Now that's a win!"
-Matthew Barker (Staff)

BELLES & BROS

"My favorite part of doing Belles and Bros was definitely teaching the dance and getting to see how much fun all the guys had doing the dance."
-Campbell Bahr (12)

WHAT WAS YOUR FAVORITE SPIRIT DAY?

"It was honestly really fun to just come to school and have fun."
EMILY GRIFFITH (9)

"My favorite day was crazy hair day. I had a wig that was probably the funniest part."
MITCHELL LUKER (12)

"Red out. It's one of my favorite traditions we do here at Liberty."
ALYSE GORMAN (12)

"Pajama day was my favorite. I wore a onesie and I really liked it."
