

DIVERSITY EDITION 2024

March 7, 2024 | Volume 128 | Issue 23

From classes to clubs to faculty associations, diverse groups exist in nearly every element of the university. This diversity edition offers a glimpse in to some of the unique experiences and perspectives that make up Wichita State's campus and community.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Wichita State engineering graduates discuss the difficulties of obtaining U.S. jobs before facing deportation.

PAGE 3

MYSTIC ROSS

Creative writing student turns thoughts, feelings into meaning imbued poems.

PAGE 5

DIMITRI SENEVIRATNE

Aspiring pre-med student shares passion for robotics, hopes to alleviate medical field issues.

PAGE 6

TOM TANGUMA

Non-binary bartender speaks on the benefits of queer-centric spaces and inspiration for literary fiction.

PAGE 14