

The background is a solid red color, split diagonally from the top-left to the bottom-right. The upper-left portion of the red area contains a reproduction of a painting, likely by Vincent van Gogh, showing a child in a white shirt and purple shorts sitting on a yellow surface. The word "be" is written in a white, lowercase, serif font. The word "BOLD" is written in a large, white, uppercase, sans-serif font, with the letters "B", "O", "L", and "D" each containing a different image or color scheme. The "B" is pink, the "O" is yellow, the "L" is grey, and the "D" is red.
