YOU HAVE A CASE OF SENIORITY

You're in your senior year. You show your school spirit in your own way. You don't go to all the events, but you still enjoy laughter and capturing all the moments. Maybe you don't love all the yelling and throwing water bottles at the football games, and you almost always leave after halftime. You are also certainly suffering from intense senioritis.

BETTER LUCK NEXT YEAR

You probably have a job or you are taking a bunch of work heavy classes. You definitely tried your best this year and we applaud you for it. You certainly bring the hype when you go to games and you for sure have a favorite cheer. You might not always know the theme, but you definitely know how to bring the energy!

YOU'RE ACTUALLY THE MASCOT

So, you're actually our school's mascot. You absolutely bring the hype to every event you go to and we know you have the best themed outfits. You definitely know all the words to the cheers and you know almost everyone in your grade. What are you doing taking this quiz? Get back into the student section and cheer or go to jail!
