

ENCOURAGING ENTOURAGE
Standing up in the crowd, Maveric Gray (7), Maddax Akins (7) and Matteo Wozenilek (7) shout at the contestants during the Nov. 7 Pep Rally game. The three were cheering for their friend Nic Brady (7), who eventually got out of the match of Musical Chairs. "I liked cheering for Nic because he was one of my friends, and I was mad when he didn't win," Gray said. PHOTO BY NORA COOPER

On the first day you got a new orange lanyard and a student badge...

They're so itchy and the color clashes with everything!

You also got stricter phone rules from the beginning of the year...

What are we supposed to do, ACTUALLY talk to people?

Maybe you noticed that there aren't any empty seats in your science class...

And math... and ELA... and every other class...

Maybe you looked at the blueprints for the new Woodland in September or went to the groundbreaking in March...

Wish we would have gotten that...

It seems like we just keep getting more,

more,

MORE...