

BIG CITY Gymnasium LIGHTS

Students attend the Homecoming dance on Sept. 27

Story by: M. Reyes

After a full week of showing off their school spirit, students get to enjoy what they have been waiting for the most: the Homecoming dance. Two DJs were hired for both the cafeteria and gym. "It went pretty much how I expected, good music and good vibes," STEPHANIE HEREDIA, 10, said. "Being able to dance and enjoy time with my friends is something I really love."

This year's Homecoming theme was centralized on the theme New York State of Mind, incorporating lots of lights, decorations and food for students to enjoy. "My favorite part would definitely be the photo booth," CAMILA PARRELLA, 11, said. "I think it is a must-do every homecoming as the pictures always turn out really cute and create new memories."

Although it was a memorable experience, there are several things students would want to see as an improvement for the following year. "The one thing I say could improve is the 360 booth," ROMAN RIMOLO, 11, said. "It's not as popular as the regular photo booth so I would say to have something better for next year."

TWO TO TANGO; Dancing together, CAMILA CRUZ, 12, and DESTINY TAYLOR, 11, feel the beat of the music. The dance lasted from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m., and many students opted to stay in the mini gym. "It's a nice way to have fun with people that you usually don't talk to during school and then after homecoming you'll talk to people that you didn't talk to before," Cruz said.

FULL CIRCLE MOMENT; Smiling with friends, DANIEL BOROVSKY, 12, enjoys his last homecoming dance. The hallways between the dance floors were decorated using street signs and newspapers. "My friends and I went as a group, I wanted to finish my senior year with the people I started high school with," Borovskiy said.

Story by: A. Steele
Photos provided by: Fox-Mar

PERFECT MATCH

Mason Laboy, 10, shares his homecoming proposal

THE BIG YES; Posing together, MASON LABOY, 10, and SOPHIA RICARDO, 10, smile for a picture. Having been dating for over a year, Laboy worked hard to plan the perfect homecoming proposal. "I stayed up all night searching for ideas and making this poster, then going to find a care bear outfit. I was really happy she said yes after all the hard work I put in," Laboy said.

Story by: R. Bernard

IN THE NEWS RIGHT NOW.

On Sept. 22, THOMAS DOHERTY JOINED THE CAST OF LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS On Sept. 26,

PRESIDENT TRUMP SIGNED ORDERS FOR U.S TAKEOVER OF TIKTOK

On Sept. 27, CARDI B'S "IAMTHEDRAMA" HIT THE CHARTS

"I feel like Thomas may be just a little too handsome. It ages him in a way that makes him look more mature, and I feel like Seymour is supposed to be very immature and inexperienced. The perfect Seymour was Andrew Barth Feldman because he was young, naive and geeky."
NADIA NICOLAS, 10

"TikTok shouldn't be banned. It's like a major news source for a lot of teenagers. Even if the information is lost it can lead them to actually researching more on it."
ABIGAIL LOBO, 09

THROW A FIT

Students showcase their outfits for Homecoming

NIGHT OUT; "My outfits inspiration mainly comes from the vibes I get from the theme of Empire State of Mind. My dress was green and silver which to me came off as a fun night out in NYC as I've visited before."

MIA REYES, 11

IN STYLE; "My friends all recommended getting a blue dress, so when I saw this one at Dillards, I thought it was perfect. New York is very diverse, so I feel as there are no limitations on what to wear to fit the theme."

SOFIA NICOLAS, 11

BLACK OUT; "My girlfriend and I decided to coordinate outfits, so I left it up to her as I would wear whatever she chooses. She chose black which was perfect because that's my favorite color, which doesn't match the theme but it's not too far from it."

HARLEY ORTIZ, 11

BEHIND THE CURTAINS

Volunteers help set up for Homecoming on Sept. 26 and 27

LEADING THE PACK; Instructing volunteers, ISABELLA ESTRADA, 10, gets the set-up team on track. Volunteers came during the weekend to help set up the big event. "I volunteered for all three days this year. There's a lot of hard work behind homecoming, and I hope people enjoy it," Estrada said.

HOLDING IT TOGETHER; Working diligently, BIANA JEAN PAUL, 09, prepares decor. SGA invited students to help behind the scenes to help make decorations. "I signed up to volunteer for homecoming to work towards my goal of over 500 volunteer hours." Jean-Paul said.

Photos and Story by: N. Correa

TICKET TALLY

Homecoming attendees explain their ticket choice

972

Students that bought a general ticket

MONEY SAVER; I bought general because I was not interested in VIP. I didn't know anyone getting the VIP ticket and didn't wanna spend more money. I just wanted to enjoy the night and not go in and out of a room and sit at a table for some time.
LIA BISONO, 12

231

Students that bought a VIP ticket

STRESS FREE; "I thought it would be a fun experience to do with my friends, considering it was my first time buying VIP. I think it was worth buying, the seating area was nice and calm when other areas like the cafeteria and gym felt too crowded and loud."
ISABEL LEE TOM, 12

Source: Student Government

044

SGA STUDENT LIFE

045

FALL WEEK OF SEP. 21-27
Spread by: Team Marisol

9

Job # 14939 School West Broward High School 11/10/25 07:22 PM A STD

44

Page submitted with preflight issues: Overset Text

Even Page

Black Ink

Includes Spot Color(s)

Process 4-Color (CMYK)

eDesign Template

eDesign L
©2025 Varsity Yearbook
All Rights Reserved

In Preflight

eDesign Template

eDesign R
©2025 Varsity Yearbook
All Rights Reserved

In Preflight

Job # 14939 School West Broward High School 11/10/25 07:22 PM A STD

Page submitted with preflight issues: Bleed Object

Black Ink

Includes Spot Color(s)

Process 4-Color (CMYK)

9

45

Odd Page