Purpose

We used our Instagram and Twitter platforms (@FHNtoday) to promote to our audience of students, parents, and community members. Our social media is used to promote the website FHNtoday and all content created on the website (stories, photos, videos, podcasts, etc.) Because social media is extremely widespread and where lots of students and parents receive their information, it is a valuable way for us to connect to the school and promote our publication's work.

These posts promote the photo galleries on FHNtoday.com. The posts give a sneak peek to the photos on our website, and are also linked in the bio of our Instagram for our audience to easily access the site and photos.

HUMANS OF FHN

This issue of the North Star takes a look at the individuals who make up our community. These are the stories of some of FHN's students.

CLIMBING TO THE TOP

Senior Rosley Muldren pushes herself in her passion for rock climbing.

by Olivia Hernandez
Senior Staff Writer

She looks herself into the harness and prepares for the strenuous ascent as her partner holds the rope steady. She knows that the climb may exhaust all of her physical strength as she strains her muscles to cling to the handholds. But senior Rosley Muldren is not deterred. She is a member of the North Star Rock Climbing team.

physically and emotionally," Muldren said. "Some of these walls are like a puzzle and you have to figure it out. Each time you feel like I have gotten stronger."

Every time Rosley climbs to the top, she pushes herself to reach her goals of being able to scale the walls without using breaks and to try harder routes. Aside from participating her to work when she is needed.

FINDING THE RIGHT SPORT

Sophomore Charlotte Bannett started playing competitive basketball last year during her freshman year of high school for the JVC girls basketball team. This year she is now one of the top girls on the team.

According to head varsity girls basketball coach Shirley Bannett, Bannett has improved a lot from last year and is showing a lot of promise for future seasons.

"I think she's just kept growing and keeping improving and I couldn't wait until she got more up," Bannett said.

This year the Knights lost a lot of girls from last season and have both a smaller girls basketball team on varsity and JV. But the Knights are still looking strong and back to improve on their record from last year, grow together as a program and are striving to win.

NEW PATH

Senior Adel Mountassar has been offered many college scholarships to play football and he has recently chosen his top choice.

Poll by Shaylea Flieger

Q: Who is your favorite artist and why?

“Definitely Billie Eilish. I’ve been listening to her music for awhile, and her music, every single song, speaks to me. They are all rich in melody and lyrics. She’s a creative genius and I always look forward to new music from her...I love her stuff and her as a human in general.”

Andrew Poertner, sophomore

Poll by Shaylea Flieger

Q: Who is your favorite artist and why?

“Luke Bryan, he’s so inspirational and he has the kindest heart towards anybody. He believes a lot of what I believe and I just connect with him.”

Poll by Oliver Diggins

Q: Do you think some cartoons are to violent for a younger audience?

“No, these shows have a mix of violence and non-violence but if you go back to older cartoons it’s just strictly physical violence no talking.”

Max Ramirez,
Freshman

Poll by Oliver Diggins

Q: Do you think some cartoons are to violent for a younger audience?

“Oh definitely. Shows like Adventure Time and other cartoons that show fights aren’t really for kids because they’re so young, and they don’t need to be exposed to that.”

Jayden King,
Freshman

Poll by Oliver Diggins

Q: Do you think some cartoons are to violent for a younger audience?

“Some are yes, but most kids don’t understand most of the stuff that happens in the show. Like SpongeBob, it has a lot of dirty jokes but the younger audience won’t know that. If an adult watches it they may think my kids shouldn’t watch this.”

Demetrius Johnson,

March Madness Tournament

To increase engagement with the school and our publications, we held our first ever March Madness men's basketball bracket tournament through social media--announcing winners and ranking through Instagram. Marketed through both social media and FHNtoday.com, the bracket contest gained over 45 members.
