

NATIONWIDE NUMBERS

Individual US state policies on abortion and reproductive rights

Data as of Jan. 16

*Minors are people under 18 years old. South Carolina considers people under 17 years old minors. Delaware, Massachusetts and Montana consider people under 16 years old minors

Sources: ACLU, Baby Center, Fuller Project, Guttmacher, Kaiser Family Foundation, New York Times, Planned Parenthood, Slate, Statista, and Washington Post

FUTURE OF ABORTION

12 states have TRIGGER BANS

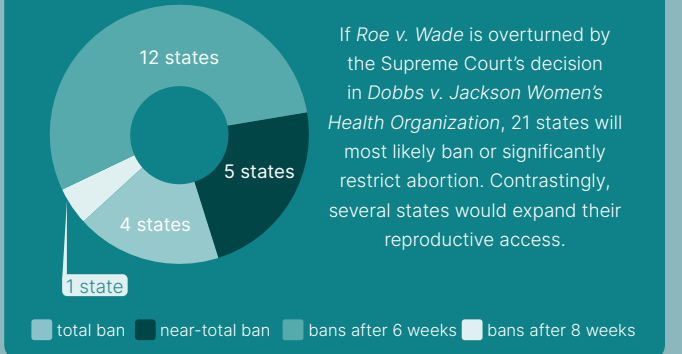

"Trigger bans" refer to laws ready to be implemented as soon as Roe v. Wade becomes overturned.

- Arkansas • Kentucky • Idaho • Louisiana
- Mississippi • Missouri • North Dakota • Oklahoma
- Tennessee • Texas • South Dakota • Utah

13 states have PRE-ROE BANS

"Pre-Roe bans" are laws that were nullified due to Roe v. Wade but never removed. Thus, these laws would come back to effect if Roe v. Wade is overturned.

- Alabama • Arizona • Arkansas • Georgia • Iowa
- Mississippi • Michigan • Ohio • Oklahoma
- Texas • West Virginia • Wisconsin

MISSOURI

- The St. Louis Planned Parenthood is the last abortion clinic in Missouri
- The clinic is currently under the threat of closure as Missouri house members continue their campaign to ban government funding (Medicaid) for abortion clinics.

WAITING PERIOD

- In states with waiting periods, it requires patients to wait 24-72 hours between a consultation and having an abortion
- Makes patients take two trips to a clinic

JUDICIAL BYPASS

- Exempts minors from having permission or notifying guardian
 - Is granted by a judge if the minor is deemed informed and mature enough to make a decision regarding their health
- available in 50 STATES