IU dedicates Japanese American Ban Memorial

By Salome Cloteaux

An IU community member dedicated a Japanese American Ban Memorial to raise awareness and apologize for the IU’s history of denying admission to Japanese American students during World War II.

“Ban Memorial symbolizes IU’s deep regret for its unjust treatment of Japanese Americans during World War II, which was a part of the aggressive action against the residents of the country to achieve peace,” said John Applegate, Interim Provost and Executive Vice President of the IU Bloomington campus.

In February 1942, IU President Dr. Harry W. Price announced a university policy to ban Japanese American students during World War II, which resulted in the internment of Japanese Americans in the United States during this time.

The memorial is a commission at the Wells Library and the John S. and James L. Price Pavilion in Bloomington.

A number of initiatives and competitions have been undertaken to address the violation of Japanese American students’ civil rights during the war.

Applegate announced that the creation of the Ban Memorial is in response to the continued backlash against the university to put something positive about the history of Japanese American students.

Dr. Eric Langowski, a Bloomington alumnus and former IU Provost, unveiled a plaque for the memorial at the end of the 2021-22 academic year.

Langowski said he hopes people will learn about Japanese American history and a more complete version of IU’s history.

Langowski said he hopes people will learn about Japanese American history and a more complete version of IU’s history.

The new plaque will be a reminder of the university’s past policies and will serve as an inspiration for the future generations.

The memorial is a reminder that IU is working on improving its diversity and inclusion efforts and that it is committed to its goal of digital and equitable internet access.

Internet access to improve by 2022

By Tyler Satkiewicz

The City of Bloomington and Meridiam signed a letter of interest to create a new fiber network, which will allow Bloomington residents to operate with high-speed internet service.

The new fiber network will provide internet access to Bloomington students with a broadband connection.

Meridiam and the city are committed to their goal of digital and equitable internet access.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

Internet access will improve by 2022.

By Tyler Satkiewicz

The City of Bloomington and Meridiam signed a letter of interest to create a new fiber network, which will allow Bloomington residents to operate with high-speed internet service.

The new fiber network will provide internet access to Bloomington students with a broadband connection.

Meridiam and the city are committed to their goal of digital and equitable internet access.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

Internet access will improve by 2022.

By Tyler Satkiewicz

The City of Bloomington and Meridiam signed a letter of interest to create a new fiber network, which will allow Bloomington residents to operate with high-speed internet service.

The new fiber network will provide internet access to Bloomington students with a broadband connection.

Meridiam and the city are committed to their goal of digital and equitable internet access.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

Internet access will improve by 2022.

By Tyler Satkiewicz

The City of Bloomington and Meridiam signed a letter of interest to create a new fiber network, which will allow Bloomington residents to operate with high-speed internet service.

The new fiber network will provide internet access to Bloomington students with a broadband connection.

Meridiam and the city are committed to their goal of digital and equitable internet access.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

Internet access will improve by 2022.

By Tyler Satkiewicz

The City of Bloomington and Meridiam signed a letter of interest to create a new fiber network, which will allow Bloomington residents to operate with high-speed internet service.

The new fiber network will provide internet access to Bloomington students with a broadband connection.

Meridiam and the city are committed to their goal of digital and equitable internet access.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

Internet access will improve by 2022.

By Tyler Satkiewicz

The City of Bloomington and Meridiam signed a letter of interest to create a new fiber network, which will allow Bloomington residents to operate with high-speed internet service.

The new fiber network will provide internet access to Bloomington students with a broadband connection.

Meridiam and the city are committed to their goal of digital and equitable internet access.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

Internet access will improve by 2022.

By Tyler Satkiewicz

The City of Bloomington and Meridiam signed a letter of interest to create a new fiber network, which will allow Bloomington residents to operate with high-speed internet service.

The new fiber network will provide internet access to Bloomington students with a broadband connection.

Meridiam and the city are committed to their goal of digital and equitable internet access.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

Internet access will improve by 2022.

By Tyler Satkiewicz

The City of Bloomington and Meridiam signed a letter of interest to create a new fiber network, which will allow Bloomington residents to operate with high-speed internet service.

The new fiber network will provide internet access to Bloomington students with a broadband connection.

Meridiam and the city are committed to their goal of digital and equitable internet access.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

The letter of interest is a major step to equitably improve Bloomington’s access to high-speed internet.

Internet access will improve by 2022.
Azcona never joined the chapter and instead made the decision to leave St. Paul’s and the Catholic Church in May 2020. She moved to another Christian denomination at the Canterbury House on IU’s campus, which she said is more LGBTQ-affirming than St. Paul’s.

“The started a crisis of faith for me. Sometimes I go into it and it feels like I can’t breathe, like my lungs don’t work.”

“Speaking very generally, men who experience same-sex attraction tend to be drawn first to the physical qualities and the outward appearance of the person they are attracted to. They do not perceive those people to be locking in themselves—a particular look or physical attractiveness—so much as a sense of distance.”

“Similar to what a non-stressed, non-threatening, non-pressured, non-normative environment could do, it leads to a sense of identity and a sense of belonging. To feel welcomed by the community, especially if you feel like you are in a minority, it is transformative.”

“To be mindful of the truth that chaste friendships are not only possible but necessary. We as a chapter encourage friendships between the same-sex as one another—men with men and women with women.”

“We want to help men, women, and transgender individuals to overcome their sexual and identity struggles by welcoming them into the Catholic Church. Our mission is to promote the healing of the soul and the restoration of the person. We believe in the power of God’s grace to change the lives of those who seek it.”

“Woerter would not disclose the former priest about how the chapter knows. He said the chapter has received reports of misconduct at the church for years.”

“COURAGE International has a 50-year history of helping people overcome sexual and identity struggles by welcoming them into the Catholic Church. Our mission is to promote the healing of the soul and the restoration of the person. We believe in the power of God’s grace to change the lives of those who seek it.”

“Part of IU Student Media, the IDS is a self-supporting auxiliary University enterprise. Founded on Feb. 16, 1899, it is the oldest student-run newspaper in the United States.”

“T he 13-page Courage International handbook, which they had to review and edit, was updated in 2019 to reflect the new criteria and guidelines of the United States Catholic bishops. The manual includes guidelines for men and women who are homosexual and heterosexual.”

“Part of IU Student Media, the IDS is a self-supporting auxiliary University enterprise. Founded on Feb. 16, 1899, it is the oldest student-run newspaper in the United States.”

“IU students are encouraged to participate in the Catholic Newman Centers located at the Bloomington and Terre Haute campuses.”

“IU students are encouraged to participate in the Catholic Newman Centers located at the Bloomington and Terre Haute campuses.”

“IU students are encouraged to participate in the Catholic Newman Centers located at the Bloomington and Terre Haute campuses.”
Black women in law continue to trailblaze for the future

By Da’Nasia Pruitt

It’s been a year since IU student Schuyler Bradley died as a result of police brutality. It’s important to keep Schuyler’s memory alive, especially as the civil rights movement, in light of ongoing police brutality, has continued its fight.

Schuyler was a son, brother and friend who was most known as a generous student, Schuyler’s family and friends said.

When Schuyler was found, he had broken two ribs and his lungs had been broken. A broken arm, a broken spine and a broken head had been suffered by Schuyler, who was known for his ability and willingness to help others.

COURTESY PHOTO

Schuyler’s family said that the student was known for his kindness and hard work.

On this particular vacation, Schuyler was visiting his family in McComb, Mississippi, the hometown of his mother. Schuyler was known to be a hard worker and a good student.

Black women lift as we climb.

Th e many directors of the IU Soul Revue have been the driving force behind the Potpourri Company, the African American Performance Ensemble and the IU Soul Revue.

The Potpourri Company, the African American Performance Ensemble and the IU Soul Revue have been working together to create a new performance that will be held this weekend. The performance will be called “The Potpourri of the Arts is back with 27th performance.”

By Da’Nasia Pruitt

The Potpourri of the Arts is back with 27th performance

By RJ Crawford

After two years without a way to connect and engage with one another, The Pop- pourri of the Arts have finally returned to the stage, focusing on Black culture and music.

The Potpourri of the Arts is back with 27th performance, the produc- tion captures more aspects making up the Black commu- nity.

The video of Black women in law continue to trailblaze for the future

The video, directed by Da’Nasia Pruitt, explores the journey of Black women in law and the challenges they face.

The video highlights the struggles and achievements of Black women in the legal field, as well as their contributions to society.

The video aims to raise awareness and celebrate the contributions of Black women in law.

The video is available for viewing on the IU Soul Revue’s Instagram account.

By Da’Nasia Pruitt

Keeping Schuyler Bradley’s memory alive on anniversary

It’s been a year since IU student Schuyler Bradley died as a result of police brutality. It’s important to keep Schuyler’s memory alive, especially as the civil rights movement, in light of ongoing police brutality, has continued its fight.

Schuyler was a son, brother and friend who was most known as a generous student, Schuyler’s family and friends said.

When Schuyler was found, he had broken two ribs and his lungs had been broken. A broken arm, a broken spine and a broken head had been suffered by Schuyler, who was known for his ability and willingness to help others.

COURTESY PHOTO

Schuyler’s family said that the student was known for his kindness and hard work.

On this particular vacation, Schuyler was visiting his family in McComb, Mississippi, the hometown of his mother. Schuyler was known to be a hard worker and a good student.

Black women lift as we climb.

Th e many directors of the IU Soul Revue have been the driving force behind the Potpourri Company, the African American Performance Ensemble and the IU Soul Revue.

The Potpourri Company, the African American Performance Ensemble and the IU Soul Revue have been working together to create a new performance that will be held this weekend. The performance will be called “The Potpourri of the Arts is back with 27th performance.”

By RJ Crawford

After two years without a way to connect and engage with one another, The Pop- pourri of the Arts have finally returned to the stage, focusing on Black culture and music.

The Potpourri of the Arts is back with 27th performance, the produc- tion captures more aspects making up the Black commu- nity.

The video of Black women in law continue to trailblaze for the future

The video, directed by Da’Nasia Pruitt, explores the journey of Black women in law and the challenges they face.

The video highlights the struggles and achievements of Black women in the legal field, as well as their contributions to society.

The video aims to raise awareness and celebrate the contributions of Black women in law.

The video is available for viewing on the IU Soul Revue’s Instagram account.

By Da’Nasia Pruitt

Keeping Schuyler Bradley’s memory alive on anniversary

It’s been a year since IU student Schuyler Bradley died as a result of police brutality. It’s important to keep Schuyler’s memory alive, especially as the civil rights movement, in light of ongoing police brutality, has continued its fight.

Schuyler was a son, brother and friend who was most known as a generous student, Schuyler’s family and friends said.

When Schuyler was found, he had broken two ribs and his lungs had been broken. A broken arm, a broken spine and a broken head had been suffered by Schuyler, who was known for his ability and willingness to help others.

COURTESY PHOTO

Schuyler’s family said that the student was known for his kindness and hard work.

On this particular vacation, Schuyler was visiting his family in McComb, Mississippi, the hometown of his mother. Schuyler was known to be a hard worker and a good student.

Black women lift as we climb.

Th e many directors of the IU Soul Revue have been the driving force behind the Potpourri Company, the African American Performance Ensemble and the IU Soul Revue.

The Potpourri Company, the African American Performance Ensemble and the IU Soul Revue have been working together to create a new performance that will be held this weekend. The performance will be called “The Potpourri of the Arts is back with 27th performance.”

By RJ Crawford

After two years without a way to connect and engage with one another, The Pop- pourri of the Arts have finally returned to the stage, focusing on Black culture and music.

The Potpourri of the Arts is back with 27th performance, the produc- tion captures more aspects making up the Black commu- nity.

The video of Black women in law continue to trailblaze for the future

The video, directed by Da’Nasia Pruitt, explores the journey of Black women in law and the challenges they face.

The video highlights the struggles and achievements of Black women in the legal field, as well as their contributions to society.

The video aims to raise awareness and celebrate the contributions of Black women in law.

The video is available for viewing on the IU Soul Revue’s Instagram account.
the Health Directory is your guide to health and wellness in the Bloomington area.

Dr. Brandt Finney, D.D.S.

Mon. - Fri.: 8 a.m. - 2 p.m.
2900 E. Buick Cadillac Blvd.
812-339-3427
bloomdentist.com

Mon. - Thu.: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.
101 W. Kirkwood Ave.
812-954-4565

Mon., Tue., Wed., Fri.: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.
322 S. Woodscrest Dr.
812-336-6008

Mon. - Thu.: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.
2909 E. Buick Cadillac Blvd.
812-339-3427

March 2021
Indiana Daily Student
idsnews.com

Mon. - Thu.: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.
Fri.: 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.
201 W. Kirkwood Ave.
812-339-6761

Mon. - Thu.: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.
2909 E. Buick Cadillac Blvd.
812-339-3427

Mon. - Wed.: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.
812-339-3427

Mon. - Thu.: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.
Fri.: 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.
201 W. Kirkwood Ave.
812-339-6761

Mon. - Thu.: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.
Fri.: 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.
201 W. Kirkwood Ave.
812-339-6761
The dark history of American fascism

Jared Quigg (he/him)
Indiana University B.S.

The Media School should require a career prep class

Jared Quigg (he/him)

A 1.1% difference in unemployment rates means 17,000 more people are employed. This is not so much of a difference as most people realize. Let's look at it another way. If a given company has 100 employees, it needs to hire 1,100 more people to get the 1.1% increase. It makes a big difference.

In October, 40% of America’s workforce is unemployed. While this number may be alarming, it’s still better than before. In 2020, it was 5.7% higher. I think it’s important to realize how much progress we’ve made.

A 1.1% difference in unemployment rates means 17,000 more people are employed. This is not so much of a difference as most people realize. Let’s look at it another way. If a given company has 100 employees, it needs to hire 1,100 more people to get the 1.1% increase. It makes a big difference.

In October, 40% of America’s workforce is unemployed. While this number may be alarming, it’s still better than before. In 2020, it was 5.7% higher. I think it’s important to realize how much progress we’ve made.

A 1.1% difference in unemployment rates means 17,000 more people are employed. This is not so much of a difference as most people realize. Let’s look at it another way. If a given company has 100 employees, it needs to hire 1,100 more people to get the 1.1% increase. It makes a big difference.

In October, 40% of America’s workforce is unemployed. While this number may be alarming, it’s still better than before. In 2020, it was 5.7% higher. I think it’s important to realize how much progress we’ve made.

A 1.1% difference in unemployment rates means 17,000 more people are employed. This is not so much of a difference as most people realize. Let’s look at it another way. If a given company has 100 employees, it needs to hire 1,100 more people to get the 1.1% increase. It makes a big difference.
Make the most of your Thanksgiving break with these destressing activities.

Watch a Reality Cooking Show

I say this specifically because there is something about other reality or competition shows that are too high stakes for my liking. Reality cooking shows like “MasterChef” or “The Great British Bake Off” will allow you to focus on an uncomplicated plot and branch out from what may be your regular go-to viewing. Plus, maybe you’ll learn a thing or two about cooking or get inspired to try and make one of the dishes yourself.

Read a Book

It could be that one that’s been collecting dust on your bookshelf as you get distracted by all your class reading. Preferably, a book that isn’t too long or in-depth. Yet big a non-serious or quick-paced drama. If you have nothing on your shelf speaking to you, this break could be the time to go to your local library and find something there.

Arts and Crafts

If you’re anything like me, you’re the furthest thing from an artist. Still, I find an easy project that doesn’t require a lot of skill is something fun and relaxing. I enjoy a paint-by-numbers or an adult coloring book page. If you have a bit more skill than I do, maybe you’ll have fun with an easy crochet pattern or even a blank canvas and some acrylic paint. Whatever you do, don’t start a large project that is going to haunt you when you can’t find more time to complete it.

Words by Alex Hardgrave
Illustrations by Katy Szpak

Thanksgiving break is like the calm before the storm that is the last few weeks of the semester. Papers, put-off readings and finals can all wreak havoc on your relaxation time, so make the most of this upcoming week off while you can.

Here are three things I plan to do to destress and take my mind off school for a bit. I suggest you try them even before instead of spending five hours a day on TikTok.

Watch a Reality Cooking Show

I say this specifically because there is something about other reality or competition shows that are too high stakes for my liking. A reality cooking show like “MasterChef” or “The Great British Bake Off” will allow you to focus on an uncomplicated plot and branch out from what may be your regular go-to viewing. Plus, maybe you’ll learn a thing or two about cooking or get inspired to try and make one of the dishes yourself.

Arts and Crafts

If you’re anything like me, you’re the furthest thing from an artist. Still, I find an easy project that doesn’t require a lot of skill is something fun and relaxing. I enjoy a paint-by-numbers or an adult coloring book page. If you have a bit more skill than I do, maybe you’ll have fun with an easy crochet pattern or even a blank canvas and some acrylic paint. Whatever you do, don’t start a large project that is going to haunt you when you can’t find more time to complete it.
Hanna said people who do not have these factors who are diagnosed with lung cancer at advanced stage in the DFS of the tumor, and 10% to 20% of people with lung cancer is caused by patients smoking cigarette. Other causes include occupational risk, like asbestos, factory work, and so on. A smoking pack per day for 20 years would cover at least a 20 pack a year smoking cigarette. According to analyzing the number of years and packs per day, patients with at least one pack per day for 28 years would equal a 20 pack a year smoking cigarette. In Miami Cough, hematologic malignancies in Indiana University- Advanced Cancer, said a driving factor for the mortality rates of lung cancer is that patients diagnosed at an earlier stage. Screening for lung cancer is critical, said. Less than 1/5 of patients who are eligible for lung cancer screening are actually getting screened. Ceppa said. Screening smoking is the number one way to prevent lung cancer Dr. Shadi Zadeh, Associate Professor of Medi- cine, said. The next step would be to have more patients get CT scans as a population screening. Patients diagnosed at stage one have a five-year survival rate of 92%. "It is very important," said. While patients with stage four lung cancer have a survival rate in close to 60%.

IU students, faculty speak on antisemitism on campus

BY Dina Jalal | Students who have planned any Thanksgiving breaks this year, Xu said she may drive home. "We will probably drive back home to eat or do homework with family more," said. For most people in aporrogradable distance from home, it's probably easier to stay with any tobacco use products. "It's still a problem," said.

By Cameron Hermes

Anisotropic activity is increasing across IU Bloomington’s campus, specifically among international students. There are at least 2,400 international students at IU Bloomington. "I think education is in- vesting in making sure that you have to take pre- venting antisemitic issues they have dealt with. Werner said a "no” to visit home. Though she's far away from her family, "We will probably drive back home to eat or do homework with family more," said. For most people in aporrogradable distance from home, it's probably easier to stay with any tobacco use products. "It's still a problem," said.

By Emma Herwehe

IU students, faculty speak on antisemitism on campus

BY Dina Jalal | Students who have planned any Thanksgiving breaks this year, Xu said she may drive home. "We will probably drive back home to eat or do homework with family more," said. For most people in aporrogradable distance from home, it's probably easier to stay with any tobacco use products. "It's still a problem," said.

By Cameron Hermes

Anisotropic activity is increasing across IU Bloomington’s campus, specifically among international students. There are at least 2,400 international students at IU Bloomington. "I think education is in- vesting in making sure that you have to take pre- venting antisemitic issues they have dealt with. Werner said a "no” to visit home. Though she's far away from her family, "We will probably drive back home to eat or do homework with family more," said. For most people in aporrogradable distance from home, it's probably easier to stay with any tobacco use products. "It's still a problem," said.

By Cooper Kammerer

Surgery is difficult in the presence of lung cancer and has an overall 30-year survival and 50% of patients when the cancer when the cancer is diagnosed at an earlier stage. He said patients need good lung and cardiovascular function. "Hanna said people at

By Cooper Kammerer

Surgery is difficult in the presence of lung cancer and has an overall 30-year survival and 50% of patients when the cancer when the cancer is diagnosed at an earlier stage. He said patients need good lung and cardiovascular function. "Hanna said people at Taylor Swift released her album “Red (Taylor’s Version)” on Nov. 12, 2021.

When I received a text from my mom a week ago about new ABBA album “Voyage,” I immediately stopped what I was doing and went to Spotify. I’ve been a fan of ABBA since I was a kid. In November of 2020, ABBA released their first new material in 40 years — “Dance (衩) All Night.” And yet there were songs from my youth that I had missed or didn’t even know existed. The ABBA fever was slow and steady. It wasn’t until “Voyage” that I began to notice the band. After listening to the album, I was immediately hooked. ABBA’s new album “Voyage” is a time machine to the 1970s.

By Lauren McLaughlin

ABBA’s new album ‘Voyage’ falls short, but still worth a listen

ABBA has been one of the most successful and influential music acts of all time. The Swedish pop group, consisting of Benny Andersson, Björn Ulvaeus, Agnetha Fältskog, and Anni-Frid Lyngstad, was formed in 1972 and went on to release numerous hit songs, including “Mamma Mia,” “Dancing Queen,” and “Waterloo.” The band split in 1982 but reformed in 2018 to release their first new material in 40 years. Their latest album, “Voyage,” was released on Nov. 12, 2021.

ABBA’s new album is a collection of eight original songs that take listeners on a journey back to the辉煌 of the 1970s. The album features a mix of old and new sounds, with ABBA’s classic ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (/lice All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (licen All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (licen All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (licen All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (licen All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (licen All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (licen All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.

The album features a variety of ABBA’s classic ABBA sound, with some songs showcasing their ABBA sound reimagined for a modern audience. The album’s opening track, “Dance (licen All Night),” is a fun and energetic tune that sets the tone for the rest of the album. ABBA’s signature ABBA sound is still present, but there are also new elements that make the album feel fresh and new.
By Nadia Scharf

B-Town Piano Project asks for donations for covers

B-Town Piano Project, an organization with a passion for music and art, is asking for donations from Bloomington piano owners who have pianos for public access. These pianos would be used for various events, including Open Mic Night and Student Talent Show.

The project has already found two locations: the iconic Millennial Piano located in Downtown Bloomington and a second piano in the town center. These pianos will be used for various events including Open Mic Night and Student Talent Show.

The project is in collaboration with Artisan Alley, the project began when founder Markus Dickinson, the Campus Director of IU’s B-Town Piano Project, installed a piano on Indiana Avenue. The project is meant to ensure public access to affordable resources to the community.

The individual piano location, according to an anonymous source, is located outside.

B-Town Piano Project, in collaboration with Artisan Alley, is asking for donations from Bloomington piano owners who have pianos for public access. These pianos would be used for various events, including Open Mic Night and Student Talent Show.

The project has already found two locations: the iconic Millennial Piano located in Downtown Bloomington and a second piano in the town center. These pianos will be used for various events including Open Mic Night and Student Talent Show.

The project is in collaboration with Artisan Alley, the project began when founder Markus Dickinson, the Campus Director of IU’s B-Town Piano Project, installed a piano on Indiana Avenue. The project is meant to ensure public access to affordable resources to the community.

The individual piano location, according to an anonymous source, is located outside.
Tied 1-1 and up 20-19 in its third set, Indiana volleyball claimed a second win and took two sets from No. 11 Nebraska. Indiana head coach Mary Arnhart called a timeout, but Indiana senior outside hitter Kari Zumach scored the set point, which gave Indiana game one 21-13.

“They’re obviously a great team,” Arnhart said. “I thought we played well in game one. It was really close.”

Indiana had the score of one game every couple of points to start the match, and eventually gained a 15-9 advantage before Nebraska called a timeout. The Hoosiers junior outside hitter Mariah Kelly, game one winner as set point with Indians up 20-19, dominated the final point, which gave Indians game one 21-13.

“I thought we were aggressive today,” Arnhart said. “I thought we played well in game one. It was really close.”

The Hoosiers junior outside hitter Kari Zumach scored the set point, which gave Indiana game one 21-13.

They’re obviously a great team,” Arnhart said. “I thought we played well in game one. It was really close.”

Indiana had the score of one game every couple of points to start the match, and eventually gained a 15-9 advantage before Nebraska called a timeout. The Hoosiers junior outside hitter Mariah Kelly, game one winner as set point with Indians up 20-19, dominated the final point, which gave Indians game one 21-13.

“I thought we were aggressive today,” Arnhart said. “I thought we played well in game one. It was really close.”

The Hoosiers junior outside hitter Kari Zumach scored the set point, which gave Indiana game one 21-13.

“I thought we were aggressive today,” Arnhart said. “I thought we played well in game one. It was really close.”

The Hoosiers junior outside hitter Kari Zumach scored the set point, which gave Indiana game one 21-13.
Thursday, Nov. 18, 2021

ANNOUNCEMENTS

TEMPLE: The ITS Help Desk has moved to the second floor of the Student Union. Please call 812-855-0763, or visit helpdesk.indiana.edu.

REVIEW: If you reviewed your ad before publication, please return it to the IDS office. Your ad will be rerun on a cash in advance basis unless notified before your publication date.

If you cancel your ad 3 days before the first publication date, you will receive a refund for the remaining insertion dates.

If you publish an ad for the first time and do not return your ad to the IDS office, you will be charged.

COPY DIVERSES: The IDS will charge at the rates of the Indiana Daily Student.

PERMITS: If after being in store for 7 days, an ad has not been renewed, the ad will be removed from the publication.

CHANGE PERIOD: If a change is made to an ad after the first publication date, you will be charged at the rates of the Indiana Daily Student.

CHANGE PRIOR TO FIRST PUBLICATION: The IDS will charge at the rates of the Indiana Daily Student.

General Employment

Commodity Production

Looking for more than just another registered URF? We have many opportunities available. We have nothing but quality equipment. We are looking for good people to work with us. If you are interested, contact us at 812-929-8996.

STRESS RELIEF

YOUR WEEKENDS FROM CAMPUS

Visit us on Facebook: facebook.com/themonroeliving

EMPLOYMENT

General Employment

ANNOUNCEMENTS

General Employment

Delivery of the IDS on Thursday mornings. Reliable vehicle required. No experience necessary. Call 812-929-8996 or email circulation@indiana.edu.

Housing

General Employment

Homes

3BR, Town. W.D. Close to campus. (812) 548-1300

CLASSIFIEDS ADVERTISING POLICIES

AD ACCEP TED: In advertising, we stand by our commitment to the IDS. We reserve the right to edit or refuse any content.

WEBSITES: All classified ads are posted online at online.indiana.edu. On the day of publication, they will be posted online, and you will be charged.

ONLINE POSTING: Your ad will be posted online at the time of your publication. You may post your ad online in advance of your publication date.

ALL ADVERTISING: For more information, please call (812) 855-0763 or visit indiana.edu.

For Advance Copy: Contact the IDS at 812-855-0763 or visit education.indiana.edu.

In advance of the Old Oaken Bucket game, the student publications for Indiana University and Purdue University are holding a fundraising challenge. Donate between now and kickoff on Nov. 27 to show your support!
Indiana Daily Student  |  November 22, 2021

By Matt Sebree

In Indiana's opener against Eastern Michigan (November 21), Trayce Jackson-Davis earned the Big Ten Player of the Week Award, as the conference announced it on November 15.

Jackson-Davis named Big Ten Player of the Week

Indiana's Jackson-Davis named Big Ten Player of the Week for the second time.

Jackson-Davis had a strong start to the 2021-22 season when Indiana faces Michigan State.

Jackson-Davis has earned the Player of the Week distinction from the conference, with a personal best of 36 points and 20 rebounds in a win at Eastern Michigan.

On November 18, 2021, the Division I NCAA Cross Country Championships take place, as the record for the national championship.

The Division I NCAA Cross Country Championships place will be held in November 21.

For the rest of Indiana's runners, the 2021 cross country season is over.

"You could feel the emotions of everybody bringing that intensity and you kind of felt that all the way through the whole race," Helmer said.

"He's done that all year long," Helmer said. "He's done that all year long, so I don't see why we couldn't get into the national meet and win the race we did today, tied for third, as it turned out.

"You know, it's easy to say, but we were the only team in the country, but that's overall they were just the team in the conference, so we were the only team in the conference," Helmer said.

The Division I NCAA Cross Country Championships place will be held in November 21.

For the rest of Indiana's runners, the 2021 cross country season is over.

"You could feel the emotions of everybody bringing that intensity and you kind of felt that all the way through the whole race," Helmer said.

"He's done that all year long," Helmer said. "He's done that all year long, so I don't see why we couldn't get into the national meet and win the race we did today, tied for third, as it turned out.

"You know, it's easy to say, but we were the only team in the country, but that's overall they were just the team in the conference, so we were the only team in the conference," Helmer said.

The Division I NCAA Cross Country Championships place will be held in November 21.

For the rest of Indiana's runners, the 2021 cross country season is over.

"You could feel the emotions of everybody bringing that intensity and you kind of felt that all the way through the whole race," Helmer said.

"He's done that all year long," Helmer said. "He's done that all year long, so I don't see why we couldn't get into the national meet and win the race we did today, tied for third, as it turned out.

"You know, it's easy to say, but we were the only team in the country, but that's overall they were just the team in the conference, so we were the only team in the conference," Helmer said.

The Division I NCAA Cross Country Championships place will be held in November 21.

For the rest of Indiana's runners, the 2021 cross country season is over.

"You could feel the emotions of everybody bringing that intensity and you kind of felt that all the way through the whole race," Helmer said.

"He's done that all year long," Helmer said. "He's done that all year long, so I don't see why we couldn't get into the national meet and win the race we did today, tied for third, as it turned out.

"You know, it's easy to say, but we were the only team in the country, but that's overall they were just the team in the conference, so we were the only team in the conference," Helmer said.

The Division I NCAA Cross Country Championships place will be held in November 21.