

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

During Hurricane Howl, everyone sits around Lake Osceola to watch the firework show that commences after the annual boat-burning ceremony. The display is estimated to cost over $25,000. Photo by Sharron Lou

the time
OF OUR LIVES

The biggest celebration of the year kicks off as old and new Hurricanes flock to campus for Homecoming